

Chemistry Assistant Professor, Tenure Track

New Mexico State University Grants, (located in Cibola County in Northwest New Mexico) is seeking qualified candidates for a Chemistry Assistant Professor position. Teaching assignments may include in-person, online, hybrid or off campus instruction including dual credit courses. In addition to teaching duties, other job responsibilities include program management, student recruitment, student advisement, curriculum evaluation and development, scheduling of courses, and serving on colleges.

Minimum Qualifications include a Master's degree in Chemistry, Bio-chemistry or Biology with 18 graduate credit hours in Chemistry or Bio-chemistry from a regionally accredited institution and two years full-time teaching experience or the equivalent work experience.

Salary is commensurate with education and experience.

Submission of application is fully online at: <http://jobs.nmsu.edu/postings/47331>
Req# 2200121F Deadline for Application: October 31, 2022 at 11:59 p.m. First review will take place October 3, 2022. Position start date will be January 12, 2023. For information about the online application process contact Janie Gutierrez, NMSU Grants, (505) 287-6625, janieg61@nmsu.edu. Detailed job description on NMSU Grants website: grants.nmsu.edu

Position is contingent upon funding

NMSU IS AN EQUAL OPPORTUNITY/AFFIRMATIVE ACTION EMPLOYER. Women and Minorities are strongly encouraged to apply. All offers of employment, oral and written, are contingent on the university's verification of credentials, individual's eligibility for employment in the United States and other information required by federal law, state law, and NMSU policies/procedures, and may include the completion of a criminal history check.